

HOLLYWOOD STARS ADD CHARITY GLITZ TO LONDON HOTEL

St James's Hotel and Club in London is to host Pulp Fiction star Samuel L Jackson and a host of his celebrity friends including Alice Cooper, Natalie Cole, Don Cheadle, Don Johnson and Luke Wilson as part of a charity event next month. The celebrities will be in the UK for the The Shooting Stars Celebrity Golf Tournament at the London Golf Club on 10 and 11 June. Other players and dinner guests will pay up to £14,000 to play golf with the famous figures and £5,000 to have dinner with them. All proceeds from the events will go directly to the Rainbow Trust Children's Charity and the Samuel L Jackson Foundation. Gary Landsberg, owner of the hotel, said: "Our VIP guests will be extremely well looked after and we will do everything to make sure they have a memorable stay."
